

Shanghai >

HE, Niansheng

Senior Partner

He Niansheng is a partner at AllBrightLaw Offices in Shanghai. His practice areas include corporate law and securities and capital markets.

Mr. He focuses his practice on domestic company IPOs, corporate compliance review and standardization, shareholding reform, declaration for listing, non-financial corporate bonds, medium-term notes and short-term financing bills, asset or equity acquisitions between domestic and overseas companies, establishment of various types of domestic and overseas companies, VC funds and PE investment in Chinese enterprises, overseas placement and listing of Chinese companies, and mediation, litigation and arbitration arising between domestic and overseas companies. Mr. He's clients cover a wide range of industries, including the government, mining, construction and real estate, food, logistics, industrial product manufacturing, pharmaceutical and chemicals, agriculture and telecommunications.

Mr. He has working experience in large-sized state-owned ocean transportation and coal enterprises and he once served as a member of Securities Committee and Restructuring and A Committee of Shanghai Bar Association.

Mr. He graduated from Nanjing University, and he also graduated from Nankai University with an EMBA in 2011.

Mr. He is a practicing lawyer in China. His working language is Mandarin.

Office: Shanghai

Tel: 8621-2051 1000

E-mail: heniansheng@allbrightlaw.com

Working Language: Chinese
